Messages and heels
All across the golden field
As the wheat whistles in the wind
We forget what world we're in
And all the zig zags in my head
I'm always on the one that ends
Don't do what he or she just did
I wanna be just like me
The one and only

And this is what he said

Run for your life, run for your life, run for your life, run for your life, Run for your life, run for your life, run for your life, run for your life

Restless for sleep, look who's dreaming now Stength is for weak, its so much deeper than that.
