Red heads with curly hair
October scented lingerie
Today found tomorrow
I'm not kidding you around
I found a way into my mind
Well we're ready to roll
I don't wanna know
My only daughter's on my mind
She's got curly blond and I have straight brown
I remember her hair, it smelled like bonfire
Her jawbone so sharp, it would cut your hand off
I know what you're thinking Barbara
But you gotta believe me
The only people that are out
At this time of the night
Are the cops
