Everybody has a love story
Well I have a few for you
It won't take long
Here they are

One, two, three four

Power outage on a Saturday night
Game of tag with two flash lights
Then I smell her inching closer
As our bodies heat up a roller coaster

Next thing you know we were tangled in laughter
Two teenagers hearts couldn't beat any faster
We were lost in the light, baby losing our minds
Losing our minds

Some kind of love, some kind of feeling
I have up in my heart tonight, I'm letting loose on you
Some kind of love, some kind of feeling
I have up in my heart tonight, I'm letting loose on you

Feel so perfect in this type of light
Summer storm kept us up all night
And the rain was pounding down
And the music it made it such a heavy sound

For me I'm glowing at the light it's creating
Let's up the room we can see what we're making
I'm in over my head and I'm losing my mind
Losing our minds

Some kind of love, some kind of feeling
I have up in my heart tonight, I'm letting loose on you
Some kind of love, some kind of feeling
I have up in my heart tonight, I'm letting loose on you

Some kind of love, some kind of feeling
I have up in my heart tonight, I'm letting loose on you
Some kind of love, some kind of feeling
I have up in my heart tonight, I'm letting loose on you
