Suspicious signs
Within your mind
Will make this jinx complete
And now you find
The end of times
When the black cat crossed your feet

You must beware
Death's everywhere
When the dog howls at the moon
The evil eye
You surely die
Unless you find your penny soon

Thursday the twelfth
Is bad for my health
Tomorrow is worse
Predicting my curse
What does it all mean
Friday The 13

Five leaf clover
The good luck is over
The mirror cracks in two
A horseshoe found
Good luck abounds
For the horse, It' not so true

Snuff the candles
But can you handle
If the flame remains aglow
Good fortune shot
And now you've got
Another year to go
