[DJ Clay]

Juggalos and juggalettes it makes me proud to announce from the south of hell boondox

[Hook X2]

Who gon catch me when I'm falling down into darkness What have I created my dreams fall apart when a demon gets Discovered an angel has to suffer just leave me in my hell I will put nothing above us

[Verse 1]

One prick from an infernal pinch fire in my veins burning like a bitch So sick till I get my fix I'm sweating in the corner with a crucifix
Her tears from like bastard angels fall from heavens graces this hell I'm living in this sin I'm seeing demons faces
The darkness takes over my senses fall into a coma mix blood and soma wash it down with some holy water dance with the devil
By the pale moon light with a needle for my appetite get on my level 6 feet in the dirt never see the light

[Hook X2]

Who gon catch me when I'm falling down into darkness
What have I created my dreams fall apart when a
demon gets
hell I will put nothing above us

[Verse 2]

No rest for this wicked soul and everyone suffers when it takes control my family looking at me like I'm the demon I'm trying to Hide it but they know somehow they do gotta keep moving down this vanishing path while I'm stuck in a chemical bath soaking on my own behalf But I'm taking them with me as much as I try to lead them right while I go left I know their trying to help me but I gotta face this demon by myself As I wonder who gave me this curse it was me and yet no other if I cant win against this demon forever my angels have to suffer

[Hook X2]

Who gon catch me when I'm falling down into darkness
What have I created my dreams fall apart when a
demon gets
hell I will put nothing above us

On my knees and look to the sky please lord help me now its got me and I don't know how everything I know is gone sitting here I'm all alone and tryin to figure everything out

[Hook X2]

Who gon catch me when I'm falling down into darkness
What have I created my dreams fall apart when a
demon gets
hell I will put nothing above us
