i am away and on my way to a better place and today what is there for me to say except i miss you so much now

(chorus)
please dont cry
dont believe their viscious lies they dont know ive changed them while i have become a faithful guy (repeat 2x)

the river is running deep and wide silence kills the sound of water weaken from the other side never to forget the tide

(chorus)
(repeat 2x)

repeat chorus
