She run away with a joke of her man
But the laughter is not on me
Tears are not enough
When your drowning to be seen
But i got a way to try to forget
But i can't get over you
It aches me from inside
And then it beats me til im blue
*/(There) We said the words we never mean
Walk away with somebody's dream
That's the way we live our lives
Someone else eyes/
Love is a lonely harbour i know
But it's still the place to be
Standing on the key side
Just staring at the sea
I guess i could always try to pretend
But i know it isn't true
All that ever comes back
Is my fear of losing you
Repeat *
There we said the words we never mean
Walk away with somebody's dream
With somebody's dream
We walk away
That's the way we live our lives
With someone else eyes
