"Radio Waves"

You take me back to the familiar
There's no way back
But I still see you

I'm my system you begin to flow
I'n my system faces I used to know

Radio waves
Through the empty miles
Radio waves
(Through the loosen hives)
Radio waves
Keeps the flame alive

Guiding us through
Trying to get home

I'm searching through forgotten airspace
And through white noise
You reach out to me

I'm my system you begin to flow
I'n my system faces I used to know

Radio waves
Through the empty miles
Radio waves
(Through the loosen hives)
Radio waves
Keeps the flame alive

Guiding us through
Trying to get home
