"Hear Me Fall"

Well I swear that's you and god we've been down this road before
That the guilt's no good and it only shames us more
And the truths that we all tried to hide
Are so much clear when it's not our lives we don't face the blame

Won't you get on your knees
Believe have faith
In this lie with us all

Now my body's on the floor
And I am calling
Well I'm calling out to you
Can you hear me now?

Well it's not a rebellion when you're selling out
To another fashion salesman
Our promising lives are full of empty promises
Temptation's falling and calling you home again
Well I'm sorry if we've let you down
Won't you get on your knees
Believe have faith
In this lie with us all

Now my body's on the floor
And I am calling
Well I'm calling out to you
Oh can you hear me now?

Now my body's on the floor
And I am calling
Well I'm calling out to you
Oh can you feel me now?

What's wrong? What's wrong? What's wrong?
What's wrong? What's wrong? What's wrong?
Well what's wrong? What's wrong? What's wrong?
What's wrong? What's wrong? What's wrong?

Now my body's on the floor

And I am calling
Well I'm calling out to you

Now my body's on the floor
And I am calling
Now my body's on the floor
And I am calling

Now my body's on the floor
And I am calling
Well I'm calling out to you
