she buys me flowers
this could be big brings me french coffee she's really diggin' me now -- for now
she comes in the morning leaves in the night
she's got a boyfriend
i guess that's alright
friends are saying she's a waste of time i should leave her now call me crazy i still feel like we just might make it somehow but for now i've decided to live for now i told her someday she'll be all mine
she said keep dreaming i guess she's not buying it
