Another day you try to let it go

But it's all encompassing yeah and it grows

You knew it all and now it's new to you

So much wiser than before but too soon to tell

Don't get close to the edge or you will fall fast from grace

Then it's so hard to believe

Take a look at yourself what do you see

Every time you get close that's when I see you - I see me

You sing a song of truth but you're living a lie

So hard to believe

You got a dream, you got to see it through

Yes I hear what you say but I don't think you do

Come on give me this 'cause I don't need your sympathy

As I stand here holding the line please take it from me

Don't get close to the edge or you will fall fast from
grace

Take a look at yourself what do you see

Every time you get close that's when I see you - I see
me

When my spirit was low you made me look to the sky

You left a hole in my heart but I don't know why

It's so hard to believe
