I've been checking over my shoulder
Something's follwing me
The back of my neck is feeling much colder
It's there but I just can't see
One day I'll meet it and that'll be that I know I'm going to beat it, it's a natural fact
The bigger they come - the harder they fall
The bigger they come - the harder they fall
I've been ducking down some deep dark alleyways
I've done some divin' around
Blindly feeling my way through the city
Got my ear to the ground
I've got to shake it this feeling so bad
It could be the best time that I've ever had 'cause
The bigger they come - the harder they fall
The bigger they come - the harder they fall
Here comes a merchant
he wants money in his hand
I know that he won't listen
He just don't understand
They creep out after midnight

They sliding all around

Working on the night shift

It's going on all over town

The bigger they come - the harder they fall

The bigger they come - the harder they fall
