Lost your way and you don't know how it happened
So much time you wasted chasing satisfaction
Seems like there's no where else to go
Please, I wish that you would come home

Oh, don't be so afraid, you think that you're too far
But you never are, you never are, you never are, are,
are
So scared that you're too late, too hidden in the dark
But you never are, you never are, you never are, are,
are

Grace is underestimated
All you ever really have to do is take it
God is bigger than the times we fail
So why can we not forgive ourselves?

Oh, don't be so afraid, you think that you're too far
But you never are, you never are, you never are, are,
are
So scared that you're too late, too hidden in the dark
But you never are, you never are, but you never are

You will never be perfect, oh
But you're still worth it
You've gotta just believe

Oh, don't be so afraid, you think that you're too far
But you never are, you never are

Oh, don't be so afraid, you think that you're too far
But you never are, you never are, oh
So scared that you're too late, too hidden in the dark
But you never, you never, you never are, you never are

You never are, you never are, are, are You never are, you never are, you never are, are, are
