Don't break the heart that loves you;
Handle it with care
Don't break the heart that needs you;
Darling, please be fair
Why do you flirt, and constantly hurt me?
Why do you treat our love so carelessly?
You know I'm jealous of you,
And yet you seem to try
To go out of your way
To be unkind
Sweetheart, I'm begging of you,
Don't break this heart that loves you
Don't break this heart of mine
(Spoken) Darling, please don't hurt me;
Please, don't make me cry
I don't know what I'd do if you'd ever say goodbye
Remember -- I love you so much,
And love is life's greatest joy
Please don't break my heart like a child breaks a little toy
Sweetheart, I'm begging of you,
Don't break this heart that loves you
Don't break this heart of mine
