And if we swim,
Well we could be home by midnight,
But if we don't swim,
We'll stay exactly where we are now.

Don't follow roads,
Because roads will lead you nowhere,
The way the air is thinner,
Out here.

And you came from above,
And you will show me love.

I lost myself and I,
Found my little piece of sunshine,
And when you move that place and time,
You tell me don't lie, don't lie,
Baby don't.

I hide myself away at night,
Because we all wish that lies,
Were easier to tell,
Oh you tell them so well.

I lost myself and I,
Found my little piece of sunshine,
And when you move that place and time,
You tell me don't lie, don't lie,
Baby don't.

Found my little piece of sunshine,
And when you move that place and time,
You tell me don't lie, don't lie,
Baby don't.

My friends, my friends, keep telling me,
My friends, my friends, keep telling me no,
Keep telling me no.(x3)
