"The Freeze"

Visit "The Freeze" on MotoLyrics.com

I'll meet you where the path meets the beach where the tree leans out over the water slender and tender
olive green
how can it survive the freeze?

you smell of the trees you're the one of the forest the light died beyond the window and the perfume was all dying leaves of rain in the dirt and turned fields

will we survive the freeze?

the salt has dried at the corner of your lips and you laugh at me before you come to my bed heavy and hot
will you survive the freeze?
