I've been to Hollywood
I've been across the water
I've talked to senators and presidential daughters
I talked to an old lady who didn't have no money
I've talked to a medicane man and they're all the same to me

Wherever you are, Whatever you say, Wherever you go
Whatever you need, whoever you are
Everyone's a star

I've been to Liverpool
I've been to old calcutta
I've been to Africa
I've been to Tennasse
I went to Zion on my way back from Jamaica
There ain't no difference if you know what I mean
Wherever you are, Whatever you say, Wherever you go
Whatever you need, whoever you are
Everyone's a star

Sing it to the north side, sing it to the south side
Sing it int he east side, sing it in the west side
Sing it in the water, sing it in the air
Sing it on the ground and everybody sing it

Everyone's a star

I'm just a peasent boy they said was going nowhere
I'm just a peasent boy got no blue blood in me
I'm gonna go out there and hold my head up higher
There ain't no difference if you know what I mean.

Wherever you are, Whatever you say, Wherever you go
Whatever you need, whoever you are
Everyone's a star
