Baby there's something that I
Need to say to you, oh
It ain't easy to say
So just listen boo, oh
I know that for a while
All we do is fight, oh
The loving seem to change
Between you and I, you and I

Should I forget about the things
You said to me
After we first met babe
Should you forget about the things
I said to you
After we met that day

Should we should we should we should we
Go our own ways
Should we should we should we should we
Go our own ways
I don't wanna fight with you
I'm sick of arguing
Saying words that we
Didn't mean to say

Oh baby
Should we should we should we should we
Go our own ways
Should we should we should we should we
Go our own ways

I know these ain't the words
That you wanna hear, oh
And I don't wanna think
About loosing you, oh
But it kills me to know
That I make you cry, oh
Should we go separate ways
Or should we try, to make it right

Should I forget about the things

You said to me
After we first met babe
Should you forget about the things
I said to you
After we met that day

Should we should we should we should we
Go our own ways
Should we should we should we should we
Go our own ways
I don't wanna fight with you
I'm sick of arguing
Saying words that we

Oh baby
Should we should we should we should we
Go our own ways
Should we should we should we should we
Go our own ways

Should I forget about the things
You said to me
Should you forget about the things
I said to you

Should we should we should we should we
Go our own ways
Should we should we should we should we
Go our own ways
I don't wanna fight with you
I'm sick of arguing
Saying words that we
Didn't mean to say

Oh baby
Should we should we should we should we
Go our own ways
Should we should we should we should we
Go our own ways
