let the sun shine
let the rivers run away
coz its a beautiful day now
to play now
as i close my eyes and pray
lord have mercy on me
coz im feeling kinda lonely
would you be
could you be
my one and only

took a train at a station and almost lost my patience coz i was waiting damned rain delayed the train now im waitin in vain
just to see your face is this the one that im supposed to be afraid of is this the one that im supposed to be ashamed of hard as a rock not soft like play-do everytime i hear a song playing on the radio

let the wind blow
let the wind touch my face
i wanna take a little break now
shake now
this is what i have to say
i feel so fine
so fine that it blows my mind
tell the truth
when will you be mine

and in my dream you are so real
so it seems
inside my head a giant screen
plays every scene
while i scream
i feel you everytime i go to sleep
wake up in the middle of the night and i weep
gotta be mine
that girl is so fine
girl be mine

all it takes is a matter of time

or so it seems
so you see
will you be mine

sun shine

so fine the it blows my mind

and as i close my eyes and pray
be mine
