I'm feeling down, my senses are bound 'Cause I can't get the one I want to, can't get the one I want to

Don't ask me the time, my watch doesn't wind
I neglected my taste and I'm drinking cheap wine
'Cause I can't get the one I want to love So I'm just biding my time, drunk as drunk, the wine's just fine

And there's so many people trying to get to Get to the one they want to, get to the one they want to Get to the one they want to love
So I'm just biding my time, till I see you again, the wine will do fine

I can't get the one I want to, I can't get the one I want to I can't get the one I want to love, love.
