I have to say that in away
You sound like some one I once knew
And in a way you look just like her too
But that dosen't mean I still think
Of her because it just isn't true.

And needless to say your smile
Alone shows the wonders of you
But her half of smile she gave
Showed me all of her blues

And some how I feel you'r the one for me
And I hope you feel that I'm the only for you

And now that the night sky is
Here my new love I ask you to cuddle up
With me so we can share our smiles together
Under the heavens supreme

And if and when we fall asleep
We will dream the rest of the night away
And when the morning sun comes up
Our dreams and smiles will shine all day
