I See you like you are See your shining star
I know the pain you feel I read it in your face again

I can see the secrets
that you try to keep inside your heart.
I know you feel alone
and it hurts to see you turn away from love again

She that lonely girl Walking in the dark tonight memories of the past haunts you like a ghost this time

I can see the secrets
that you try to keep inside your heart.
I know you feel alone
and it hurts to see you turn away from love again

What scares you so? are you afraid to love again?
Why can't you see you have to leave your fear behind

I can see the secrets
that you try to keep inside your heart.
I know you feel alone
and it hurts to see you turn away from love again
