The sun always shines
When you look into my eyes
I never seen a girl like you before.
The smile on your face
Tells me your love is true
You make my world a brighter place.

The way you moves
The way you touch me
I can't live without the sight of you
The way you say
The word I love you
I can't live a day without your presence

The sound of the wind
Disappears when you are near
Is this a dream or is it real
In the shades of the night
There is a light in your eyes
You make my world a brighter place.

You are the sun in my life
You are the one that shine so bright
You are the sun in my life
You are the one that shine so bright

Wooooaaaaa
You are the sun in my life
Wooooaaa
You are the sun in my life

You are the sun in my life
You are the one that shine so bright
You are the sun in my life
You are the one that shine so bright
