I've been wonderin', still I'm uncertain
If there's ever been an urgent time like the one we're in Once again, humans have plummeted
From being on top of shit to being under it
For instance, Americans on heroin
Many men battle the sin, but they never win
Their brains ain't tellin' them, that it's killin' 'em
The false bliss makes 'em think it's fulfillin' them
We're all equipped to live in this environment
That's why I'm in alliance with scientists
Psychiatrists, always bringin' new clients in
They tried diagnosiing me, I wasn't buyin' it
No way I'll behave like tame man
Being made with the DNA of a cave man
This strange land, wasn't a part of the game plan
Can't stray from the ways that nature made man

Chorus

And we'll never stop until the end
There is no inherited shut off switch
Tellin' us we had enough of all this
I need someone tellin' me when to stop cause I'll keep going
One part is what I've learned another part's inherited

Another problem is overpopulation
Too many kids and not enough occupations
We got no patience, just lots of hatred
In this one big melting pot of races
Obsessive-compulsives act on impulses
I never chose to overindulge in my dosage
I just opened up and ate it like a vulture
Just how us humans are supposed ta
There is no inherited shut off switch
Tellin' us we had enough of all this
We ain't evolvin', we're just dissolvin'
Just a bunch of food, drug, and alcoholics

Chorus

I got ever reason to believe in demons

It's more than it seems it ain't just me dreamin'
We need to breed by releasing semen
It's in the girl's genes to receive and feed them
It makes for males in the world to be Planting their seed in every pretty girl he sees
Though we seem to be behaving perfectly
We don't know our fates at stake mistakenly
I'm very sure Henry Ford didn't know
That a car's exhaust would defrost the North Pole
See across the globe, we all lost control
But little did we know it would cost our home

Chorus
