I was alone in my big bed
Those lonely nights I tried to reach you

You're putting me on, messed with my head
But have you heard I'm going to teach you

You will find out that you miss my lovin' ways
But don't you know I switched you, switched you
I switched you, I switched you, I switched you

I hear that sound, that clickety-clack
That train returning who bewitched me

Now you're around, you want to come right back
Forget about the way you ditched me

Now you found out that you miss my lovin' ways
But don't you know I switched you, switched you
But don't you know I switched you, switched you

Messed my head
Messed my head

Why you going putting me
Why you going putting me
Why you going putting me on?
Tell me why?

Messed my head
Messed my head
Messed my head
Messed my head

Now you found out that you miss my lovin' ways
But don't you know I switched you, switched you

Why you going putting me
Why you going putting me
Why you going putting me on?
Tell me why?

Messed my head

Messed my head
Messed my head
Messed my head

I was alone in my big bed
Those lonely nights I tried to reach you

Now you found out that you miss my lovin' ways
But don't you know I switched you, switched you
