I've been working on my Maitri
It doesn't matter who you are
Just only that you're living
I'm trying so hard

I've been working on my Pramoda
I can't say I've gone as far
I'm so happy now to see you
Yeah, you, soul star

That's the Jaina blues
That's the Jaina blues
That's the Jaina blues

I'm working on my Karuna
I'm gonna help you through this part
Nothing's gone your way, it seems
You're trying so hard

That's the Jaina blues
That's the Jaina blues

I never dreamed
That this would be
So hard

I'm working on Madhyastha
I won't finish what you start
I'm not trying to listen
Yeah, I'm trying so hard

That's the Jaina blues
That's the Jaina blues
