Like a break from the sun
Like a stroll in the park
Your smile opened one thousand doors
With the key to my heart
Like a river that flows
Like a breath of fresh air
They way you talk when we're all alone
Soft and calm like a prayer

Hold me so close
I know I could be
The lover who could fix your broken heart
Pick it back up
And bring it to me
You know I'll never let you fall apart

Like a baby that's born
Like a flower that dies
I see the beauty in everything

When I look in your eyes
You'll be singing along
You'll be painting a dream
Tell a story to pass the time
Oh, what a wonderful scene

You shouldn't worry about it now
Just close your eyes and let it go
It couldn't be any easier
But now the meters running low

Hold me so close
I know I could be
The lover who could fix your broken heart
Pick it back up
And bring it to me
You know I'll never let you fall apart
