Living like a cry
living just to die

Living - what does it mean? - Living.
Never caring what they say
what they think about my way.
Never asking what will be tomorrow or another day.
Living like a cry
living just to die.
Living like a cry
living just to die

...

Living
that can be a smile
carrying me just for a while.
A hand to hold me

a dream to guide me.
Living like a cry
living just to die
living means rising.
Living like a cry
living just to die.
Living like a cry
living just to die

...

Living
that can be a smile
crrying me just for a while. . . .
