Lullaby, Lullaby, Lullaby of love

Now I lay me down to sleep
While the church bells ring
As the sandman passes by
I can hear him sing
Lullaby, Lullaby, Lullaby of love
Pleasant dreams to you

Never felt like this before
Suddenly it's spring
Ever since we kissed goodnight
I hear angels sing
Lullaby, Lullaby, Lullaby of love
Pleasant dreams to you

In my dreams I'll fantasy
You will share my throne
For you brought true love to me
A love I've never known

On my way to slumber land
I'll pick you a star
Cradle it within my heart
For that's where you are
Lullaby, Lullaby, Lullaby of love
Pleasant dreams to you

Lullaby, Lullaby, Lullaby of love
Lullaby, Lullaby, Lullaby of love
