"I Fall In Love With You Every Day"

I fall in love with you every day, the thrill is always new
every day,

The sun may shine, the rain may fall, and icy winds
may blow,

You smile at me, and all I see are blossoms in the snow.

I thank my lucky star every day, that you are as you are
every day.

The years may come, the years may go, if we're still here, I'll say

I fall in love with you every day.

I thank my lucky star every day, that you are as you are
every day.

The years may come, the years may go, if we're still
here, I'll say

I fall in love with you every day.
