"If I Ever Love Again"

(If I ever love again,) it will be you,
(There will be no other one, no one but you.)

I never want a thing to dim the past,
For the love we knew must last.

(If I ever thrill again,) it will be you,
(And I never will again,) to someone new.

No one else's charms can fill my empty arms,
If I ever love again, it will be you.

'Cause nobody else's charms can fill my empty arms,
If I ever love again, (it will be only you.)

(Instrumental)

'Cause nobody else's charms can fill my empty arms,
If I ever love again, (it will be only you.)
