Days without you when there's so much to tell
What to do, I've got a restless spell
How about you, are you alone as well?
What to do, I've got a restless spell

Why should this love of mine find me
Restless and moody and blue
Shadows all seem to remind me
You're meant for me, dear and I'm meant for you

Days without you when there's so much to tell
What to do, I've got a restless spell
How about you, are you alone as well?
What to do, I've got a restless spell

Why should this love of mine find me
Restless and moody and blue
Shadows all seem to remind me
You're meant for me, dear and I'm meant for you

Love is well, but you can't love alone
Might as well be a statue of stone
I'm lost without you dear, but what to do
'Cause I've got a restless spell

Love is well, but I've got a restless spell
