Oh, Luna Rossa, you're out tonight
A moon of red in a sky of white
Because I'm telling a lie tonight
And blushing moon, you know of it

Oh, Luna Rossa, you're smart at love
You know I'm playing the part of love
I try my hand in the art of love
Just for the thrill and glow of it

Luna Rossa, forgive me, Luna Rossa
For the vows I made tonight that are untrue
What else am I to do?

But blushing moon, there's a reason why
The love I longed for has passed me by
And so I play at the game but I
I am lonely, Luna Rossa

Luna Rossa, forgive me, Luna Rossa
For the vows I made tonight that are untrue
What else am I to do?

But blushing moon, there's a reason why
The love I longed for has passed me by
And so I play at the game but I
I am lonely, Luna Rossa
I am lonely, Luna Rossa
