"Night After Night"

Night after night I cry myself to sleep,
And night after night, I count the tears I weep.
It's easy to get through the days, the days go fast,
But when they're past, that moon comes on
And you're gone, and you're gone.
Night after night you're always in my heart,
It just isn't right for us to be apart,
I have one special dream, dear,
And if that dream comes true,
I'll spend night after night after night with you.

I have one special dream, dear,
And if that dream comes true,
Then I'll know that my arms have the right,
To hold you ever so tight,
Spending night after night after night with you.
