

Frank Sinatra

"The Best I Ever Had"

Visit "The Best I Ever Had" on MotoLyrics.com

I've tried to break the habit
But somehow I just keep waking up alone.
There's something deep inside me
That refuses to believe you're really gone.
And every night I fall asleep
By your side of this great big double bed,
Remembering that the worst you ever gave me
Was the best I ever had.
I know I should be sleeping
Like a kitten in somebody else's arms,
But I lie awake remembering all the ways
We used to keep each other warm.
I know that nothing's perfect but we came so close,
How could it turned out bad?
But even so the worst you ever gave me
Was the best I ever had.
How I missed your tender kisses
And the gentle arms that used to hold me tight,
Oh they say that all good things must end
But endings always leave somebody sad.
But I remember that the worst you ever gave me
Was the best I ever had.
I can't forget the worst you ever gave me
Was the best I ever had.

Visit Frank Sinatra page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.