By the beautiful sea, you'll see a girl and a fella
By the beautiful sea, you'll see a yellow umbrella

That's where we'll spoon on the sand
And then pretty soon, hand in hand
We walk through the waves, right up to our chins
We dream happy flounders of flapping our fins

When you're in love, the seaweed smells just like roses
Each breaker we strike is like a velvet settee
By evening, the moon will be high
And stardust will hit me kerplunk in the eye

It's peachy when her and me can be
By the beautiful, beautiful sea

By the beautiful sea, you'll see a girl and a fella
By the beautiful sea, you'll see a yellow umbrella

And that's where we'll spoon on the sand
And then pretty soon, hand in hand
We walk through the waves, right up to our chins
We dream happy flounders of flapping our fins

When you're in love, the seaweed smells just like roses
Each breaker we strike is like a velvet settee
By evening, the moon will be high
And stardust will hit me kerplunk in the eye

It's peachy when her and me can be
By the beautiful, beautiful, beautiful, beautiful sea
(Beautiful, beautiful sea)
