We're just a kiss apart, and yet we dance on and on,

We're just a kiss apart, and soon our chance will be gone.

Now you're beside my heart, your eyes have started to shine,

Oh but I know too well, daybreak may break the spell.

So while we're just a kiss apart, kiss me and tell me you're mine.

(Instrumental)

We're just a kiss apart, and soon our chance will be gone.

Now you're beside my heart, your eyes have started to shine,

Oh but I know too well, daybreak may break the spell,

So while we're just a kiss apart, kiss me and tell me

Yes, kiss me and tell me you're mine.
