Won't say that grass will grow or ivy will climb,
But darling, I'd say, we've got a sure thing this time,

I'd say that we're on our way to a star,
And, take a tip from me, we are, we are.

Won't say that rivers flow or day turns to night,
But darling, I'd say we've got a sure thing all right.

Won't say it's winter when snow falls from above,
But darling, it's a sure thing we're in love.

I never predict the future, I haven't a crystal ball,
I wouldn't attempt to tell you when tomorrow will fall.

Why should I have opinions, supposing I might be wrong,
I'm much better off if I just call along.

(I Won't say that rivers flow or day turns to night,
(But darling, I'd say we've got a sure thing all right.)

Won't say it's winter when snow falls from above,
But darling, it's a sure thing we're in love.
