Are you wearing old dreams
Breaking out at the seams
These should be new

And have I got the bargains
You lucky people, you

Here's a Hollyhock scent
Makes the lady or gent
Feel well to do

And the price fits your pocket
You lucky people, you

Then here's the green velvet landscape
And to prove I'm no rogue
I'll add a smart looking rainbow
Like you see pictured in Vogue

I've a wonderful buy
In a wrap-around sky
Of moonlight blue

And it's yours for a love song
You lucky people, you

Then here's the green velvet landscape
And to prove I'm no rogue
I'll add a smart looking rainbow
Like you see pictured in Vogue

I've a wonderful buy
In a wrap-around sky
Of moonlight blue

And it's yours for a love song
Just one love song
You lucky, lucky people, you
