It's fabulous, it's fantasy, it knocks me out tremendously, your love for me.
It never was obtainable, and now it's unexplainable,
your love for me.
It's priceless and it's precious, it's a joy to reveal,
It's hard to believe just how lucky in love you have made me feel.
It's lovable, it's lyrical, it's something of a miracle, your love for me.
(Instrumental)
It's kinda like a bundleful of everything that's wonderful, your love for me.
Don't let me lose one hour of the magic, and the power of your love for me.
It's priceless and it's precious, it's a joy to reveal,
It's hard to believe just how lucky in love you have
made me feel.
It's lovable, it's lyrical, it's something of a miracle, your
love for me,
Your love for me.
