See the white wreckage the ones who couldn't afford to leave the white pride working poor who are really live and work with the ones we all hate who can remember when their neighborhood looked brighter but somehow forget that Italians used to be niggers and the Irish were the spics so at 0 years old they eat shit for $5 an hour and just don't make the connections It makes the first generation turn over in their immigrant graves - but what can you do?
See union local Uncle Joe, the ones who proved the American Dream can fuck you harder without a color, As lost as can be when commercials come on tv for insurance and cars and vacations, All the things white people are entitled to as the fruit of this nation's lysol douched womb See the white wreckage ask what the fuck is wrong with me.
