Aynsley: Here comes the gear, lads!

Howard: Dunbar . . .

Jeff: "Here comes the gear, lads"

Howard: I'm telling you man . . .

Jeff: Sounds like a Beatles cartoon

Howard: Key down

Aynsley: Just keep your mouth shut, you . . . Curly!

?: Look at those cars! The race cars

Mark: Sure sounds like the Beatles cartoon, "Hey, John Lennon here . . ."

Jeff: "Hey, Wankers, there goes the gear"

Pilot: Good evening, ladies and gentlemen, this is your passenger agent. I'd like to welcome you to aboard United's flight 664 to Spokane. We're departing in just a few more minutes. We'll just be a . . . couple minutes delayed due to loading some extra baggage.

Mark: Could that be ours?

Pilot: I'd like to remind you that the, the bags you've carried on, that they should be stored underneath the seat in front of you . . .

Mark: Howard?

Pilot: During the flight . . .

Howard: Uh, yes, Mark . . .

Mark: Would you like some film?

Howard: I would

Pilot: Hope you have a pleasant trip, and . . . thank you for flying United

Stewardess: Good night, all

Ha ha!

Now, the trip . . .

This is great!
