

Frank's Enemy "Uncalled For"

I blame you for how I am
Or else I wouldn't understand
All I know is survival all is hell
Bottom of the hole through which I fell
Answer the question to end them all
Why did the doctor make this house call
Every day sun sets no sunrise
Lines of rage around my eyes
I can't stand up I only fall
I am here but I am uncalled
I can't stand up I only fall
I am here but I am uncalled
Got something to say then tell me
I am all ears
Got a word of reassurance let me know
I am all fears

Got a little comfort what is it
I am all tears
Got the parking brake in your hand then pull it
I am all years
Tumors bursting on my back
My rainbow's seven shades of black
I'll steal back what I own
Fall further down this hole
I can't stand up I only fall
I am here but I am uncalled
I can't stand up I only fall
I am here but I am uncalled
