Scream, scream, scream and it don't mean a goddamn thing to me
'cause what you get and what you want's two completely different things

I want you all to fucking hate me
I want you to appreciate me
Not to appreciate your rapist
I will put you to the test

Hit and rape

Cry, cry, cry, 'cause you're gonna die, gonna steal your precious pride
You beg and plead
Just do anything
But please don't take your life

Against your will i'll do what i feel and i just wanna rape Hate, hate, hate, hate is gret and it's always worth the wait

I want you all to fucking hate me
I want you to appreciate me
Not to appreciate your rapist
I will put you to the test

Hit and rape
