"In six months, you're gonna be the biggest rock 'n' roll star in the whole world"

"I know"

You wanted to be a big rockstar,
Lots of money, fancy cars,
So you could put a gun to your head,
Pull the trigger, you're better off dead

[chorus]

Because you lie, lie, your life's a big lie,
You say you try, try, you know you never tried,
And then you cry, cry, and say you wanna die,
Well I say die, die, and check yourself in at The Motel Killafornia, Motel Killafornia, Motel
Killafornia, Motel Killafornia.

You needed someone to hold your hand,
You needed someone to understand,
I only understand one thing,
You are nothing but a weak human being

[chorus]

You needed someone to hold your hand,
You needed someone to understand,
I only understand one thing,
You are nothing but a weak human being

[chorus]
