He was a-howlin at the moon when he walked up to her yeah.. oh yeah.

And he whispered to her, i couldnt hear what he said
And then he whispered to her, i couldnt hear what he said

And then he whispered to her, i couldnt hear what he
said

And the Wolfman came and stole my baby
Yeah the Wolfman came and stole her away
Well, he took her, and that's what she gets
And nothing can save her now except for silver bullets

He was a-lookin at her like she was the coolest thing he'd seen.. he'd seen Yeah well,don't you know baby don't you know that the Wolfman only wants one thing... he wants one thing.. only wants...

And the Wolfman came and stole my baby
Yeah the Wolfman came and stole her away
Well, he took her, and that's what she gets
And nothing can save her now except for silver bullets

And the Wolfman came and stole my baby
Yeah the Wolfman came and stole her away
Well, he took her, and that's what she gets
And nothing can save her now except for silver bullets
