Frankie J:
(Chorus)
(please don't go girl)
Don't go girl
Oh oh girl don't go
(Tell me you'll stay)
Tell me that you'll stay with me
(Forever more babe)
Cause everything will be alright

now listen to my story folks cuz it's all real and if the other girl listen this is how I feel I never meant to disrespect you in any way your minds still neglect what your friends had to say it's true I spend more time at work then I'm wit' you but in this business this is something that I have to do quality time is a valuable investment reminiscent on the days that I should have spent but now that went they gone
forget about it
I'm tryin to do everything my peeps back that from the beginning
I was winning and it's all good now it's things aren't turning out like they should bringing things back together I wish I could understand where I'm coming from I wish you would I think about you all the time and every minute
I really can't see my future without you in it and that's for real baby

Frankie J:
(Chorus)

(please don't go girl)
Don't go girl
Oh oh girl don't go
(Tell me you'll stay)
Tell me that you'll stay with me
(Forever more babe)
Cause everything will be alright

I ain't gonna lie
you bring the best out of me I'd rather chill wit you instead of runnin the streets
wit my peeps
just the two of us wrapped around the polar sheets livin' out of dreams isn't that what you wanted from me I admit I got a little possessive situations got aggressive
I tripped of the things you suggested pride over powered my emotions most of the time I was cosine takin' love potion
now I'm on the couch huggin' a bottle of German slowtion love must have went into the ocean too much commotion
not enough devotion
live out roastin'
now you breakin' up boastin'
but that's ok I'll be fine forever you'll be mine I'll love you till the end of time you want me to beg ha I don't think so all I can say is girl don't go

Frankie J:
Chorus)
(please don't go girl)
Don't go girl
Oh oh girl don't go
(Tell me you'll stay)
Tell me that you'll stay with me
(Forever more babe)
Cause everything will be alright

see girl you got me in a sticky tight sit-u ?ation don't blame it on me blame it on my sense of tempt-ation
you leave me some way to my destination

without you I'm a navigation with no calculation
I know the lovitana and Gucci don't mean nuttin?
I appreciate everything you do
I guess that means somethin?
I know a lot of times you can get up and just leave but you do love me that is something that I do believe I'll give it all up just to get back all your hugs and kisses
cause when you wit me I feel no competition
I know from time to time you see me eyes driftin?
but you're the one that catches all my attention
I know you see them hoochies numbers all in my phone you're like my OJ and now all my juice is all gone so give me one more chance to take this last dance baby
just thinkin' about you in my life makes me go crazy
I love ya baby

Frankie J:
(Chorus)
(please don't go girl)
Don't go girl
Oh oh girl don't go
(Tell me you'll stay)
Tell me that you'll stay with me
(Forever more babe)
Cause everything will be alright

Don't go girl
Oh oh girl don't go
(Tell me you'll stay)
Tell me that you'll stay with me?
