Woman,

Woman,

Now most men don't think about this,
And I know you don't hear this much,
And most men might act like it,
When they really don't care as much.

But you are the best thing in our lives,
And you are the sparkle in our eyes,
And by far we are more than satisfied,
And I gotta confess, please don't settle for less,

What kind of world would we live in, without a woman,
Would there be love and happiness, without a woman,
How can I call myself a man without a woman,
That's why my women is everything to me,

Now I know you aren't appreciated,
And we don't treat you like I know we could,
See valentine ain't the only day when,
Love can be expressed the way it should,

But you are the best thing in our lives,
And you are the sparkle in our eyes,
And By far we are more than satisfied,
And I gotta confess, please don't settle for less,

What kind of world would we live in, without a woman,
Would there be love and happiness, without a woman,
How can I call myself a man without a woman,
That's why my women is everything to me,

Without you, there wouldn't be Adam and Eve, or family
Without a woman, there would be no one,
Willing to care and be there for me,

What kind of world would we live in, without a woman,
Would there be love and happiness, without a woman,
How can I call myself a man without a woman

That's why my women is everything to me,

What kind of world would we live in, without a woman,
Would there be love and happiness, without a woman,
