[Verse 1]

I remember back in Grade school
When I was trying to date you
Love tops back and forth
And ooh I used to hate you
My name, your name, sitting in a tree
Riding home on the school bus
You sitting next to me
It was summer vacation playing hide and go get it
Now you're telling me to wait, baby I don't get it
Yes, no or maybe so tell me if you with it
Got a big stick from the ice cream truck
You wanna split it?
Like a clear back pack
Girl I see right through you
The feelings that you have
You couldn't measure with a ruler
Control, reset, I got the boot like a computer Got my head hanging down while I'm riding on my scooter
Part one of the saga - People asking what's gonna happen
I ain't much for fortune telling so I'm just gonna stick to rapping
Pretty sure/planning short that's what I'm here to do
Cause baby like the letter 'Q'
The first thing I need is 'U'

[Chorus]

Every night
I ask myself
How we got here
I'm afraid to close my eyes
Cause it's not clear
What the future holds

[Verse 2]

? in school I'm missing you and being in the same class
On the way to the office
Teacher can I get the same pass
First time we really kissed

First time we really kissed
I don't know what happened
Something hit me like a ton of bricks
Share the same feelings
Even share the same locker
If I try to take it further
That would be improper
Apply a little pressure
Tell her everybody's doing it
But I don't wanna stress her
Cause that just might ruin it

[Chorus]

Every night
I ask myself
How we got here
I'm afraid to close my eyes
Cause it's not clear
What the future holds

[Verse 3]

Prom night picture taken
Smooth like figure skating
Not just my imagination
So close to graduation
And we applied to all the same schools
And after all this time I abided by the rules
So tonight'll be the night
We throw caution to the wind
Damn ? broken inside
But all my friends
Can't believe that we did it
I admit it, it was worth the wait
We're soul mates
At the right time and at the perfect place

[Verse 4]

Now it's off to college
And I promise it gets better
Everything we need to learn
Won't be taught by the professor
The campus is so big
It's like a whole another world
Now you're nervous cause you're noticing
All these other girls
I'm just tryna reassure you
That no I ain't cheating
I'm just wrestling with my feelings like why we ? debating? this
So I'm jumping out the radar put a ring on your finger
? Girl I'll let you make the college

Will you turn back on the ringer ?

[Chorus]

Every night

I ask myself

How we got here

I'm afraid to close my eyes

Cause it's not clear

What the future holds
