For your love i'd wait a lifetime so if you find your mistaken.
and your new love has been breaking your heart, please come by to me
For your love id wait a life time, so when he has finished lying,
and your bitter tears need drying my love, you can allways turn to me I will wait for ever, swallow all my pride, if theres a chance, just the slightest chance, there come a day when youll turn my way and youll walk again by my side
for your love id wait a lifetime, till this heart of mine stops beating, with each breath i'll be repeating to you. wont you come back to me.
with each breath i'll be repeating to you. wont you come back to me.
